

Carter-Jones Lumber and Holmes Lumber Hartville combine forces to create Akron's strongest Lumberyard.

The Carter Lumber Family of Companies has taken a step to create the area's strongest lumberyard by combining the teams from Holmes Lumber Hartville and Carter-Jones Lumber in Akron, Ohio. Both Carter-Jones Lumber and Holmes Lumber are divisions of Carter Lumber. This "new" team will service the Akron and surrounding markets under the Carter-Jones name and will work out of the original Carter-Jones store located at 172 North Case Avenue in Akron. By combining together, customers will continue to experience all the benefits of working with the 9th largest Building Materials Supplier in the nation.

Some of these benefits include:

- Central location on 17 acres in the heart of Akron, Ohio
- 18,000 sq. ft. showroom including:
  - Kitchen, Bath, Windows, Doors, Siding & much more.
- Dedicated & experienced Outside Sales team and support group.
- First Class Delivery System & fleet including:
  - Boom trucks and conveyors for roof top delivery.
  - Semi trucks for large/distance related project
  - Forklift equipped trucks for precision delivery
  - Many other trucks for accurate & on-time delivery.
- Quality brand name products
- Installed Services on everything from doors to framing packages on single & multi-family housing to commercial construction.

"As we have said, we firmly believe that these changes will create a dynamic team and strengthen our ability to continue servicing our customers in the manner in which they have been accustomed to over the years," said Neil Sackett, President and CEO of Carter Lumber.
